

breathless...

INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE
ARTS SEASON LONDON 2005

Yekaterina Lebedeva

Music.Dance.Discussion.

INTERNATIONAL
Herald Tribune
THE WORLD'S DAILY NEWSPAPER | iht.com

“Yekaterina Lebedeva: the most impassioned and expressive pianist of her generation: Russian, beautiful, outspoken, breathtaking.”

Yekaterina Lebedeva gives three performances exclusively for the International Herald Tribune’s Breathless season. Born in the Soviet Union, now a Londoner and married to a Greek husband, she presents cosmopolitan new music from around the world for the Breathless Season, including works previously suppressed as decadent by the Soviet propaganda machine.

Performances

November 12 7.30pm

Body & Soul

Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt,
Debussy with new dance from
Martin Joyce and Angela Towler, Rambert Dance Company.

Trib Talk: Body & Soul:
New relationships in music and dance
Post-performance discussion
with special guests.

November 17 7.30pm

International Contemporary Music

Music from Greece, Ukraine,
Brazil, China, Netherlands,
US and UK.

Trib Talk: International
Contemporary Music
Post-performance discussion
with special guests.

November 26 7.30pm

Hidden & Forbidden

Sviridov, Slonimsky, Schedrin: works by Soviet composers of the 60s and 70s that broke through the so-called ‘Period of Stagnation’.

Trib Talk: Hidden & Forbidden
Post-performance discussion
with special guests.

Venue

City Lit

Keeley Street,
London WC2B 4BA

Venue

Swiss Church in London

79 Endell Street, London
WC2H 9DY

Venue

Swiss Church in London

79 Endell Street, London
WC2H 9DY

Breathless is a season of contemporary arts in London including film, dance, music, public art, theatre and discussion supported by the International Herald Tribune, the world’s daily newspaper.

For more information visit iht.com/breathless